of Transportation

Federal Aviation Administration

presents: Operation Raincheck

At Sky Harbor Airport, Phoenix, Arizona
October 27 & 28, 2000

What is Raincheck? An opportunity for General Aviation and the Air Traffic System to interact and to tour Phoenix Tower and Phoenix TRACON.

What is the format? On Friday evening, October 27, 2000 there will be a pilot education forum on the ATC system, types of airspace and how that airspace applies to central Arizona. The emphasis will be on information and on safety. Towers from Prescott to Gateway, as well as Phoenix, will be present. On Saturday, attendees can sign up for a 2 ½ hour tour of Phoenix Tower and Phoenix TRACON.

Who can Attend? Any licensed pilot can attend, but reservations are required.

How do I sign up? By calling Phoenix TRACON at 602-379-3684 Monday thru Friday between 7:00AM and 3:00PM. Tell the receptionist that you would like to register for Raincheck.

What will I need? When registering, provide your name as it appears on your license (including student pilots), your address, phone number and email.

Anything else? When you register, you will be asked what time slot you would like to participate on Saturday. Tours will begin at 7:00 AM and last 2 ½ hours. The last tour will begin at 1:30PM. (Only individuals attending Friday night will be provided facility tours.)

Is this recognized training? Raincheck is a part of the FAA's Wings Program.

Where will the forum be? The Friday night forum will be held in the Administration Building at the Air National Guard Facilities on Sky Harbor. Access is from 24th St. on Old Tower Road. For those wishing to tour a KC-35 refueling aircraft, meet in the administration building parking lot promptly at 5:00PM. (All participant must be escorted to the flight line.) Doors to the forum will open at 6:00PM and the forum will begin at 6:30PM and conclude at 10:00PM.

Registration is limited. Availability is expected to fill quickly, so you are encouraged to register promptly to ensure your spot. If, at a later date, it appears you will not be able to attend, cancellations are requested. There will be a "stand by" list if vacancies materialize.
